

Maha Behavioral Health Services

Engage, Empower, Excel

Registered Behavior Technician Requirements and Job Description

Registered Behavior Technicians considered for employment by MAHA BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES will meet the following requirements:

- Must have a high school diploma at a minimum, bachelor's degree preferred with coursework in behavior analysis or other related field.
- Complete 40 hour Registered Behavior Technician.
- Maintain recertification of RBT training annually.
- Complete all necessary Medicaid Waiver training and documents.

Job Responsibilities and Expectations:

- Receive training on Behavior Analysis Service Plans (BASPs) for each consumer on their case load.
- Implement BASPs as written.
- Provide services to consumers based on hours set by the Behavior Analyst.
- Collect data on a daily basis and provide it to the Behavior Analyst on a weekly basis.
- Communicate regularly with the Behavior Analyst.
- Train caregivers to implement the BASPs.
- Implement the BASP in all relevant settings.
- Attend meetings regarding consumer's behavior services as necessary.

Registered Behavior Technician Signature

Date

Supervisor Signature

Date